INVOCATION

INTROIT: P: These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation.
C: They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.
P: In you, O Lord, do I take refuge; let me never be put to shame;
C: in your righteousness deliver me.
P: For you are my rock and my fortress;
C: and for your name's sake you lead me and guide me.
P: Into your hand I commit my spirit;
C: you have redeemed me, O Lord, faithful God.
P: These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation.
C: They have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

PRAYER OF THE DAY: Almighty and everlasting God, You knit together Your faithful people of all times and places into one holy communion, the mystical body of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Grant us so to follow Your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that, together with them, we may come to the unspeakable joys You have prepared for those who love You; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Insights from Today's Scriptures

November 1 – All Saints' Day

"Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy."

Matthew 5:7

This is one of many Bible passages that remind us that we reap what we sow. Likewise, what God puts into us (His own love, mercy, kindness and generosity) — flows back out of us. It all starts with His self-giving.

PRAYER REQUESTS

Please pray for:

- The end of senseless violence in our society.
- All people who are recovering from natural disasters and the devastation of war.
- For survivors of the tragedy at CFB Wainwright, and for Pastor Greg Lutz and the other chaplains as they minister to them.
- For Redeemer Sarnia and for First Kingsville as they search for new pastors.
- Helen who is recovering from knee surgery.
- Linda, a friend of the Olsens', who is currently in hospital
- Eric who was in hospital recently.
- Wayne and Helga who are in hospice.
- Tim who is working to return to his job.
- Edith who is facing health concerns.
- Please continue to pray for Jean's granddaughter, Tiffanie and her family, as she continues her treatment.
- Crystal, Marg's niece who is struggling with health issues.
- Allen, Charlene's brother who is currently suffering with two health issues.
- Dwight, Frank's brother-in-law who is struggling with an undiagnosed illness.
- John who is dealing with emotional struggles.
- Eric as he continues to struggle with health issues.
- All those who continue to recover from illness, injury, surgery and loss.
- All caregivers, (Doctors, nurses, family members.)
- A member of our congregation who is being treated for mental illness.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SAVE THE DATE: We will celebrate our Anniversary Sunday on December 6th. A Potluck Luncheon will follow the service.

All Saints Day

All includes some most beloved to us. All Saints calls to mind specific individuals: particular beloved faces, names and memories. On All Saints, your congregation might name in worship your loved ones who have died in the past year.

All includes those beloved by others. All Saints creates a space that embraces with honor the multitudes of individuals among the beloved dead. All Saints sets out a place for all of them—an assembly the book of Revelation describes as "a number no one could count" with saints "from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages" (7:9).

All are saved by grace. However, it is an especially Lutheran accent for the feast to honor … all who have been baptized into Christ's death.

Today we are observing All Saints Day. We remember those who have gone to be with the Lord in the past year:

Elaine

Patricia

Helen

Karrie (Pastor's Cousin)

Memory Verse Challenge

Week of November 1, 2026

Revelation 21:4

He will wipe away every tear from their eyes,
and death shall be no more,
neither shall there be mourning,
nor crying, nor pain anymore,
for the former things have passed away.
